

VOTING INFORMATION AND REQUIREMENTS 2019

The South Granville BIA is your Association. However, the Societies Act under which the BIA is incorporated has by-laws that legally must be followed. These are Provincial by-laws that govern all non-profit organizations.

To be eligible to vote at the upcoming Annual General Meeting of the South Granville Business Improvement Association, you must be a property owner, or tenant as outlined in the SGBIA By-Laws and your membership application must be submitted to the South Granville Business Improvement Association Administrator before the end of business (5:00 pm) Wednesday, September 11, 2019. There is no membership fee.

PROXY VOTES

Every member has the right to appoint a proxy to attend, act and vote for that member at the upcoming Annual General Meeting of the South Granville BIA. According to the by-laws of the Association, proxies must be filed with the South Granville BIA Administrator (in person or at info@southgranville.org) by the end of business (5:00 pm) Thursday, September 12, 2019.

Please note that no member may hold more than 10 proxies in accordance with the Association bylaws.
